Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear Sir or Madam:

We represent North Country Business Products, Inc. (“North Country”), located at 1112 S. Railroad Street SE, PO Box 910, Bemidji, MN 56601. We are writing to notify your office of an incident that may affect the security of personal information relating to an undetermined number of North Dakota residents. The investigation into this matter is ongoing, and this notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, North Country does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of North Dakota law, the applicability of the North Dakota data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On January 4, 2019, North Country learned of suspicious activity occurring within certain business partner networks. North Country immediately launched an investigation, working with third-party forensic investigators to determine the nature and scope of the event. On January 30, 2019, the investigation determined that an unauthorized party was able to deploy malware to one hundred and forty-two (142) of North Country’s business partners’ restaurants between January 3, 2019, and January 24, 2019, that collected credit and debit card information.

Since the event was discovered, North Country has been working with third-party forensic investigators to determine what happened, what information was potentially affected and to implement additional procedures to further protect the security of its business partners’ customer debit and credit card information.

The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes cardholder name, credit card number, expiration date, and CVV.

Notice to North Dakota Residents

On or about February 1, 2019, North Country provided written notice of this incident to its business partner restaurants. Written notice was provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A. On or about February 15, 2019, North Country issued a media notice to prominent media outlets serving North Dakota and by conspicuously posting notice on their website. North Country also provided a link to its website notice to its business partners for posting on their websites. Media notice issued by North Country relating to this matter is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The website notice issued by North Country relating to this matter is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, North Country moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of North Country's systems, the systems of its business partners, and notify potentially affected individuals. North Country is also working to implement additional safeguards and training to its employees.

Additionally, North Country is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud, including advising individuals to report any suspected incidents of identity theft or fraud to their credit card company and/or bank. North Country is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, information on protecting against tax fraud, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud. North Country is also providing written notice of this incident to other state regulators, as necessary.

Contact Information

Should you have any questions regarding this notification or other aspects of the data security event, please contact us at (267) 930-4798.

Very truly yours,

James E. Prendergast of

Re: North Country Business Products, Inc., Notice of Data Security Event

Dear [REDACTED]:

We are writing to inform you of a recent incident that may affect the security of personal information belonging to your customers. North Country Business Products (“NCBP”) is providing this notice to ensure you are aware of the incident and the steps we are taking in response.

Your company may have certain legal duties in response to this matter, and we recommend you share this letter with counsel. Your company may also have contractual notice obligations, including notice to your acquiring bank and credit card processor. NCBP will provide notice of this event to potentially impacted individuals on your company’s behalf.

Here are additional details about the incident. On January 4, 2019, NCBP learned of suspicious activity occurring within certain client networks. In response, NCBP immediately launched an investigation and began working with forensic experts to determine the nature and scope of this incident. We identified certain clients who had customer information accessible as a result of the incident and promptly began a review of our files to identify the related clients and their contact information.

A review of the impacted systems determined that any credit card information of your customers that was present on your POS system was accessible from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]. Please advise if you had point-to-point encryption capability that was enabled on your POS systems during this time, as that should have prevented the malware from becoming operational. To date, NCBP has not received any reports of actual or attempted misuse of this information.

We take this incident and the security of the personal information in our care very seriously. Since discovering the event, we have been working diligently with outside forensic investigators to determine what happened and what information may have been accessible as a result of this incident.

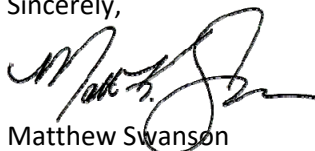

As part of our ongoing commitment to the security of personal information in our care, we have and will continue to implement additional safeguards to further secure the information in our systems. We are also notifying certain state regulators, consumer reporting agencies, and card brands, where required.

We have prepared a website notice. You should post a link on your website which directs your customers to the this notice on NCBP's webpage. A press release will also be provided to major, state-wide media. We anticipate notification using these materials on February 8, 2019. A draft copy of the website notice and press release will be provided by February 6.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me directly at [REDACTED] or via email at [REDACTED].

Again, we take the security of personal information within our care very seriously. We regret this incident happened and apologize for any concern this incident causes.

Sincerely,

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO BETTER PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your account statements, and to monitor your credit reports for suspicious activity. If you see any suspicious activity, please report it to the bank that issued your credit card. Under U.S. law you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-3228228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

You have the right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a security freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a security freeze, please contact the major consumer reporting agencies listed below:

Experian

PO Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
1-888-397-3742

Equifax

PO Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348-5788
1-800-685-1111

www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services

In order to request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Your full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. If you have moved in the past five (5) years, provide the addresses where you have lived over the prior five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
7. If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below:

Although we have no reason to believe that your personal information has been used to file fraudulent tax returns, you can contact the IRS at www.irs.gov/Individuals/Identity-Protection for helpful information and guidance on steps you can take to address a fraudulent tax return filed in your name and what to do if you become the victim of such fraud. You can also visit www.irs.gov/uac/Taxpayer-Guide-to-Identity-Theft for more information.

You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, security freezes, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting the consumer reporting agencies, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General.

The Federal Trade Commission can be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, www.identitytheft.gov, 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For North Carolina residents, the Attorney General can be contacted at 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001, 1-877-566-7226 or 1-919-716-6400, www.ncdoj.gov.

For Maryland residents, the Attorney General can be contacted at 200 St. Paul Place, 16th Floor, Baltimore, MD 21202, 1-888-743-0023, www.oag.state.md.us.

For New Mexico residents, you have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in your credit file has been used against you, the right to know what is in your credit file, the right to ask for your credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to your file is limited; you must give your consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; you may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report; and you may seek damages from violator. You may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage you to review your rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504_cfpb_summary_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

For Rhode Island Residents: The Rhode Island Attorney General can be reached at: 150 South Main Street, Providence, Rhode Island 02903, www.riag.ri.gov, 1-401-247-4400. Under Rhode Island law, you have the right to obtain any police report filed in regard to this incident.
