

RETIRED LEO

24 ROUND QUALIFICATION COURSE

Stage 1, 1 yard line. From a holstered position on the command to fire shooter will draw their weapon and walk backwards at a 45 degree angle and fire 3 rounds center mass. 5 seconds.

Stage 2, 5 yard line. From a holstered position on the command to fire shooter will dynamically take a side step draw and fire 3 rounds center mass. 6.0 seconds.

Stage 3, 7 yard line. Shooter will begin with the weapon in their support hand. On the command to fire shooter will fire 3 rounds (support hand only) center mass. 5.0 seconds.

Stage 4, 7 yard line. From a holstered position on the command to fire shooter will draw and fire 3 rounds center mass, speed reload/slide lock reload and fire 3 rounds center mass. 13 seconds.

Stage 5, 10 yard line. From a holstered position on the command to fire shooter will draw and fire 3 rounds center mass. 8 seconds.

Stage 5, 15 yard line. From a holstered position on the command to fire shooter will draw and fire 3 rounds center mass and assume a low ready position. While at the low ready shooter will again be given the command fire, shooter will fire 3 rounds center mass. 8 seconds per sequence.

- Total rounds 24.
- Magazines will be loaded with 6 rounds per magazine. A minimum of two magazines will be required for the qualification course.
- TQ 19 target will be utilized. All rounds must be touching or inside the scoring ring to be considered a scorable hit.
- Any rounds fired after the allotted time will be counted as a miss and deducted from the final score
- A minimum of 70% percent must be achieved to qualify.
- 70%=17 rounds inside or touching scoring ring.